A sensational and rare French mid 18th century Louis XV period rock crystal and ormolu nine light chandelier, circa 1740. The chandelier is centered by an outstanding solid rock crystal ball. Each of the nine arms are adorned with kite and teardrop shaped cut rock crystal pendants and rosettes. The row of lighting displays three set of three arms separated by rock crystal daggers with ormolu tops. Each dagger connects the light cage to an additional level of similar smaller daggers amidst kite shaped rock crystal pendants. At the top is an elegant crown with ormolu spray and teardrop pendants and rosettes. All original gilt.
