A sensational and grand scale French mid 18th century Louis XVI period giltwood mirror circa 1740. The Provençal mirror retains all of its original mirror plates throughout with the central one framed within a fine beaded mottled border. The mirror displays most elegant tapered topie shaped and acanthus leaf feet which center a lovely most decorative scrolled foliate reserve with a richly carved rosette set on a mirrored backplate. Stunning intricately detailed grape leaves and grape clusters lead up each side amidst superb scrolled acanthus leaves also set on a beautiful mirrored background. Above is the spectacular pierced top crown centered by an impressive and most decorative fluted basket with ripe fruit flanked by large scrolled elements and lovely additional floral designs. All original gilt and mirror plate throughout.
