A most sensational and high quality French mid 19th century Empire st. clock of Cupid and Psyche. The clock is raised by a rectangular marble base with scrolled ormolu legs and an acanthus leaf ormolu band. The front center is decorated by a finely chased ormolu mount of playful cherubs of which one is in a chariot and pulled by peacocks. Above stands Cupid holding a butterfly in his hand while leaning on Psyche. Both are flanking the original enameled dial which is above an ormolu mount of with additional playful cherubs with young adults. Wonderful large scale with warm patinated bronze patina and rich gilding.
