A grand French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. Baccarat crystal and ormolu chandelier. At the bottom is an ormolu acanthus leaf inverted finial with ormolu crown with kite shaped crystal pendants. Above are strands of graduating crystal garlands, creating a dome shape, bordered by a chased running waved design ormolu band. The crystal strands continue to a central finely chased ormolu base decorated with six large laurel wreaths and six smaller ones adorned with a torch and quiver of arrows, joined by impressive foliate garlands. Above more crystal garlands joined to the finely chased ormolu top band with ormolu bows joined by swaging crystal garlands accented with crystal pendants. All original gilt with twenty five interior lights.
