A sensational French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. Biscuit de Sèvres and giltwood centerpiece. The statue is raised by a richly detailed square giltwood base with slightly curved sides. Each side are decorated scrolled acanthus leaves below a fine laurel band. The base supports a wonderful circular Biscuit de Sèvres garden gazebo with six fluted columns below the dome, with swaging garlands and a top decorative urn of prosperity. Inside the gazebo sits charming winged cherubs on stools. The cherubs are enjoying a repast at a central table with a basket in the center filled with fruits. The table is wonderfully decorated by swaging floral garlands.
