A most elegant French mid 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood double framed mirror. The mirror retains all its original mirror plates set within lovely tied berried laurel bands and most decorative twisted robe designs at the borders. The outer mirror plates are separated by charming floral branches set on beautiful lattice designs while each corner is decorated with fine foliate designs. The exceptional pierced top crown is centered by two love birds perched on the eternal flame and a quiver amidst beautiful finely detailed branches and flowers. All original gilt throughout.
