A very attractive French Napoleon III period 19th century ebony, ormolu and brass fitted one door cabinet. The cabinet raised by 'boule' shaped legs decorated by brass rings, has a highly decorated door with a central medallion reserve in the manner of Clodion. The four corners of the door are decorated by scrolled borders amidst brass filets. The two outer panels are with richly chased rosettes and scrolled acanthus leaves. The sides have a satyr mask while the top has its original black Belgium marble top. All original gilt.
