A very handsome French Provincial 18th century Louis XV period walnut commode. The chest is raised on front curved feet and straight back feet with paneled sides. Finely carved drawers, two at the top and two wider ones below, all have large centered foliate style carvings accented with brass keyhole escutcheons. The top drawers also with brass foliate designed keyhole escutcheons, and the lower two with brass handles with rosette accents. The arbalest shaped front is flanked with large top carvings of scrolled foliate. All below the solid molded edge arbalest shaped walnut top. All original warm patina throughout.
