A beautiful French turn of the century Louis XV st. gilt metal and Baccarat crystal chandelier attributed to Maison Bagues. The nine arm chandelier is centered by a most decorative cut faceted crystal ball below a lovely gilt metal foliate reserve and a superb array of teardrop and kite shaped cut crystal pendants. The nine elegantly scrolled arms branch out from scrolled gilt metal branches with exceptional etched crystal leaves and each displaying beautiful crystal pendants and charming floral bobeches. The lightly curved cage leads upwards to a superb pagoda like top with fine etched leaves below a reeded umbrella like top crown.

Maison Bagues Founded in Auvergne, France, in 1840 by Nicolas Baguès, the company originally specialized in the creation of liturgical bronzes. Thanks to Baguès' expansion into bronze lighting and the popularization of electricity, the business quickly found success. At the turn of the century, their chandeliers captured international interest, and soon Baguès began exporting to London, New York, Rome, Brussels, and Cairo. The company is best known for introducing to the world their now signature collections of finely crafted iron, gilt and crystal chandeliers and wall sconces Parrots & Foliage.
