A stunning French turn of the century Louis XVI st. flamed Mahogany and ormolu dining table possibly by Maison Jansen, Paris. The table is raised by elegant circular tapered legs with fine fitted ormolu sabots with beautiful foliate designs also repeated at the mottled top caps. Above each leg is a richly chased ormolu rosette flanking the straight apron decorated with a fine mottled wrap around ormolu band. The French polished top showcases the exceptional flamed Mahogany wood grain with an elegant mottled ormolu gallery at the border. The table displays two extensions and all original gilding throughout.
