A beautiful French Turn of the Century Louis XVI st. ormolu and tole Bouillotte lamp. The three arm lamp is raised by a circular mottled ormolu bowl like base with a fine wrap around beaded band. At the center is the circular fluted central support below the beautifully scrolled arms with elegant circular bobeches and mottled candle cups with fine beaded bands which are adjustable and can be raised or lowered by the lovely heart shaped screw. Above is the original tole shade with delicate giltwood bands at the borders and which is also adjustable with an additional heart shaped screw all below the hoop shaped finial.
