A sensational and monumentally scaled French mid 19th century white Carrara marble statue. The most impressive and statement making statue is raised by her original circular pedestal column which displays a fine mottled border. The high quality statue above is of an elegant lady draped in a wonderfully executed draped flowing garment tied over her shoulder with a ribbon and held in her left hand. She is standing barefoot next to a tree trunk which is decorated with a stunning array of richly sculpted flowers. She holds an intricately detailed luxuriant bouquet of beautiful blossoming flowers in her right hand with a lovely wreath wrapped around her other arm. Her hair is tied in an updo with a finely detailed blossoming rose wreath and she displays a wonderful and most charming expression on her face.

Exceptionally museum quality and execution throughout.
