A monumental pair of French 19th century Louis XIV st. terra cotta urns. Each impressive urn is raised on a fluted style socle and base centered by a laurel wreath design. On each façade are wonderful carvings of putti frolicking with animals amidst foliate, with a large bird on one side and a goat on the other. Large scrolled on each side are accented with wonderfully detailed masculine masks, joined by a running wave rosette design. At the lip a finely carved decorative border.
