A charming pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Sèvres porcelain and ormolu vases. Each beautiful hand painted vase is raised by a finely chased circular ormolu band with a lovely reeded and laurel branch design. The hexagon shaped vases have an off white background decorated with green and lavender color foliate garlands accented with pink flowers and charming bows. The elegantly curved necks display lovely bands with pastel colors and designs below finely chased berried laurel and beaded ormolu top bands. All original gilt.
