A very decorative medium scale pair of 19th century Chinese 'Famille Rose' porcelain vases. Each vase is raised by an ormolu square base with canted corners. The base has a scalloped frieze with chased panels on all sides below a laurel band. Above is the tapered cylinder Famille Rose vase with views of figures on the outside and floral designs on the inside, rendering it decorative even when empty. The top rim of each vase is decorated by a beaded ormolu band.
