A very high quality pair of mid 19th century French Louis XVI st. Brèche Violette marble and ormolu cassolettes with removable lids. Each urn is raised by a square base with a laurel chased ormolu band. The urn above has two finely chased ram heads joined by an attractive intertwined berried garland band, and a swaging floral garland. Each removable lid is above a pierced ormolu design, and is finished with an ormolu acorn finial. All original gilt.
