A stunning pair of Baltic 19th century Neo-Classical st. Ormolu, Mahogany, and Vert de Patricia marble pedestals. Each beautiful pedestal is supported by a triangular Vert de Patricia marble and Mahogany base with concave sides and ball feet. Above the base are three square slender tapered Mahogany legs with Ebony accents, an urn of prosperity central reserve, and Ormolu palmette mounts at the top. The circular top has a wonderful inverted globe shaped bottom with a central sunburst design decorated by an array of Ebony bands and a central Ormolu rosette. The apron showcases stunning Ormolu palmette mounts flanking Ormolu winged masks between slender Ebony bands which wrap around the apron. A stunning and intricately detailed Ormolu band wraps around the top of the apron and frames the wonderful Vert de Patricia marble top surrounded by a Mahogany border.

Top Diameter: 13.25"
