An impressive pair of early 19th century Charles X st. ormolu urns on bases. Each richly chased urn is raised on a square burl walnut veneer base with a moulded acanthus leaf ormolu border. Above an ormolu square base gives rise to a reeded pedestal ovoidal urn with acanthus leaves surrounded by a grapevine garland and flanked by lion head handles. The scalloped top rim has a beaded surround below the removable lid topped by a foliate finial. All original gilt.
