An extremely elegant and most decorative pair of English 19th century Regency st. mahogany, ormolu, giltwood and Noir St. Laurent marble circular side tables. Each table is raised by a triangular shaped base with concave sides and finely scrolled feet with lovely giltwood cabochons and a top reeded giltwood band. The striking circular central support displays a beautiful reeded design with a central fut and a square top reserve with recessed panels with beaded trim. All below the circular Noir St. Laurent marble top fitted within an ormolu gallery accented with a beaded border.
