A stunning and most impressive pair of French 19th century Empire st. Mahogany, ormolu, and Vert de Patricia marble consoles. Each freestanding one drawer two tiered console is raised by elegant bun feet below the lower tier with a beautiful concave front decorated with a striking wrap around ormolu band with a fine palmette design. The backplates retain their original mirror plates framed within Mahogany back columns with remarkable scrolled front legs with handsome paw feet and richly chased palmette mounts. Above each leg are striking mounts of a mask with sunburst designs flanking the straight frieze with a single drawer adorned with additional intricately detailed pierced ormolu mounts of richly chased palmettes and foliate movements with a central berried laurel wreath and floral keyhole escutcheon. Above are the original Vert de Patricia marble tops.
