A handsome pair of French 19th century Louis XIII st. Oak armchairs. Each "Os de Mouton" designed chair is raised by lightly curved fluted legs with fine acanthus leaf feet each connected by a lovely scalloped stretcher. The arms also display a most decorative fluted and lightly scrolled design with fine acanthus leaves and impressive richly carved lion heads. The cushioned back support and seat are upholstered with leather and finished with brass nail heads. All original patina throughout.
