A superb and most unique pair of French 19th century Louis XIV st. ormolu and silvered bronze lamps. Each lamp is raised by a striking base with concave sides and a fine mottled border. Four elegantly scrolled support lead upwards adorned with handsome paw feet, fine acanthus leaves and scrolled designs centering a square finial with a gadroon design. The square tapered central supports display beautiful fitted silvered bronze floral lattice designs leading up to exquisite richly chased masks of maiden's faces amidst stunning foliate designs in rich satin and burnished finishes. At each side are wonderfully executed swaging berried laurel garlands tied with charming bows.
