A striking and most impressive pair of French 19th century Louis XIV st. ormolu candelabras. Each seven arm candelabra is raised by a triangular base with three delicate tapered fluted feet below exceptional richly chased sphinges with acanthus leaves centering beautiful draped reserves all in a superb satin and burnished finish. The mottled central support displays a beautiful finely detailed wrap around berried laurel garland with three intricately detailed cameos of handsome noblemen set on a most decorative hammered background. Above are six beautifully scrolled arms also displaying remarkable hammered designs leading to exquisite intricately detailed rams heads below floral bobeches and elegant baluster shaped candle cups all centering a single arm decorated in a similar manner with reeded, acanthus leaf, and lovely foliate designs.
