A stunning pair of French 19th century Louis XV st. giltwood and white Carrara marble consoles. Each wall mounted console is raised by elegant and most impressive scrolled tapered legs adorned with acanthus leaves and beautiful richly carved flowers. The legs are connected by exceptional mottled stretchers with striking central reeded cabochons set on foliate backgrounds. Above each leg are finely detailed scrolled foliate seashell reserves flanking the pierced lattice designed frieze and centered by most impressive seashells flanked by charming richly carved swaging floral garlands. Above are the original white Carrara marble tops with finely mottled borders. All original giltwood throughout.
