A stunning and very high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period ormolu and Sarrancolin marble lidded urns. Each urn is raised by an elegant circular ormolu base with block feet adorned with striking rosettes below a wrap around tied fluted band. The elegantly shaped marble body displays a most decorative lightly curved socle design at the base and beautiful richly chased masks at each side in a striking satin and burnished finish connected by exquisite blooming flower garlands. The curved neck is encased by lovely wave like movements with finely detailed acanthus leaves below a delicate interlocking wrap around band and the removable lid with a beautiful foliate finial and which lifts off to reveal the finished interior.
