A remarkable and very high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period ormolu and Verde marble urns. Each urn is raised by an elegant square ormolu base with concave corners and a fine mottled border.

The socle shaped pedestal support displays a richly chased wrap around berried laurel band and an elegantly curved design. The beautifully shaped body displays striking finely detailed rams heads on each side connected by exquisite swaging berried laurel garlands tied at the center. Above a fine beaded wrap around band is the most decorative lightly curved top with a finely sculpted mottled border and a graceful richly chased berried foliate finial in a superb satin and burnished finish. All original gilt throughout.
