A sensational and extremely high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Belle Époque period white Carrara marble and ormolu urns. Each urn is raised by three graceful foliate topie shaped feet below fine ormolu rosettes flanking superb fitted pierced scrolled foliate plaques. The elegantly shaped bodies are encased by superb scrolled supports with handsome hoof feet adorned with stunning acanthus leaves in a rich satin and burnished finish leading to intricately detailed bearded satyrs. The bodies are also adorned with a stunning array of pierced Rinceau shaped scrolled foliate movements amidst richly chased swaging floral garlands centering an exceptional reserve with an elegant maiden. Above is the stunning floral finial with a beautiful spiral fluted design and foliate movements.
