A stunning and extremely elegant pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. double framed giltwood mirrors. Each mirror retains all of its original beveled mirror plates. The central mirror plates framed within beautiful beaded bands while the outer mirror plates are separated by striking and finely detailed palmettes at the mottled frame with luxuriant acanthus leaves at each corner. At the tops and bottoms are beautiful intricately detailed berried laurel branches tied with unique and most decorative ropes while the top crowns are centered by superb richly carved wreaths. Superb proportions and intricate attention to detail throughout.
