An extremely elegant and unique pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood armchairs. Each winged armchair is raised by circular tapered fluted legs with fine topie shaped feet and carved acanthus leaves. Above each leg is a block rosette centering a finely carved foliate band that extends along the frieze. The scrolled cushioned arm supports display fluted patterns and carved acanthus leaves. Leading up the border of the back support is a fine and most decorative carved overlapping design and a striking floral and tied ribbon wreath. All original gilt throughout.
