An exquisite pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood Bergères. Each chair is raised by four circular tapered fluted legs with rosette blocks at the front. A richly chased giltwood frieze has a twisted rope design with foliate front plaque. The scrolled giltwood arms continue at each side to the top with accented with foliate and twisted rope designs. Centered at the top is a carved foliate reserve with another at each side. Each Bergères has a handsome curved back and giltwood frame. Upholstered with a rich gold damask fabric.
