A striking and extremely decorative pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood, polychrome, and Portoro marble pedestal columns. Each pedestal is raised by bun feet below a square base with concave sides with a finely mottled wrap around border and charming central giltwood rosettes. Four elegant lightly curved supports lead upwards with scrolled feet and large acanthus leaves, block rosettes at the central tier, and impressive richly carved swaging berried laurel garlands above with additional striking block rosettes. Above are the original circular fitted Portoro marble tops.
