An impressive pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. marble and Ormolu urns. Each uniquely shaped urn is raised by a square marble base with concave corners and a bottom Ormolu band. The circular support displays fine smooth cabochons and a tied ribbon design. Leading up are stunning richly chased Ormolu swaging floral garlands and detailed tassels centered by beautiful maiden faces with fine details. At each side are scrolled handles and charming grape clusters in a sensational satin and burnished finish. Above are the stunning foliate decorated lids with richly chased top finials.
