An exceptional and very high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and black Belgian marble Gueridon side tables. Each unique and most decorative two tiered table is raised by handsome claw and ball feet with delicate richly chased palmettes and connected by an elegant concave stretcher. Each lightly curved leg displays a striking spiral fluted design connected by its original black Belgian marble shelf fitted within a mottled ormolu border. Above each leg are exquisite finely detailed roosters in a striking satin and burnished finish. Above are the original black Belgian marble tops fitted within superb mottled borders with most decorative wrap around Vitruvian scrolls.
