A superb pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and marble lamps.

Raised on ormolu bun feet below a rectangular sienna marble base with chased ormolu trim. Above each is a raised platform with foliate chasings supporting the ormolu oil lamp, with scrolled foliate handle ending with a rosette. The seeming flying winged cherubs each hold a large butterfly and have a quiver of arrows fastened at their waist. The spout of the lamp ends with an electrified bobèche. and silk pleated shade.
