A striking pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Noir Antique marble Gueridon side tables. Each table is raised by handsome paw feet with large acanthus leaves below lightly curved ormolu supports. Each support is connected by a bottom triangular ormolu stretcher with concave sides and an elegant urn. At the center are the Noir Antique marble display tiers with fine wrap around galleries. Above each support are lovely scrolled designs which center the Noir Antique marble tops fitted within fine wrap around ormolu galleries and beaded bands. All original gilt throughout.
