A striking and most unique pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and patinated bronze sconces after a model by Jean-Jacques Caffieri. Each two arm sconce is centered by an impressive fluted quiver with fine bottom foliate designs a richly chased fletchings with a most decorative intricately detailed blooming flower wreath suspended by patinated bronze chains. The arms are tied at the center and display an elegantly curved design with beautiful foliate and berried designs leading to tapered fluted bobeches and floral fluted candle cups all in an exceptional satin and burnished finish.
