A most decorative and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and silvered bronze chenet andirons. Each andiron is raised by striking and most unique spiral fluted legs below lovely foliate fitted rosettes at each elegantly curved side. Richly chased pierced scrolled foliate designs extend along the front, set on a striking silvered bronze background and centered by finely detailed masks amidst cornucopias. Above are impressive and richly chased rinceau shaped scrolled acanthus leaves leading up to beautiful maidens with lovely long hair holding eternal flames.
