A striking pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and white Carrara marble Gueridon side tables. Each table is raised by their original casters below handsome paw feet and large richly chased acanthus leaves. Each elegant lightly curved support is connected by triangular pierced bottom ormolu stretchers with concave sides and beautiful urns with eternal flames. At the centers are fine display tiers with their original white Carrara marbles framed within lovely mottled ormolu galleries. Above each support are most decorative scrolled designs centering the original fitted white Carrara marble tops, also fitted within elegant mottled wrap around galleries. All original gilt throughout.
