An elegant and very high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu candelabras. Each three arm candelabra is raised by a fine circular mottled base with a beautiful wrap around twisted rope band and lovely spiral fluted designs encased by striking richly chased hoof feet. The elegantly curved arms lead upwards adorned with intricately detailed swaging berried laurel garlands in a rich satin and burnished finish tied with a charming bow and centering the striking eternal flame finial. Above are lovely circular floral bobeches with a fine beaded border and reeded candle cups with wrap around Vitruvian scroll bands.
