Each lid can be removed and flipped to accommodate a candle.

Candle Height: 5"
