A stunning and wonderfully detailed pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Ormolu lamps, signed Gagneau Paris. Each lamp is raised by a circular pedestal with a beaded edge. Above the pedestal is the socle decorated with swaging foliate garlands, a beaded edge, and a fluted spiral design. The central support of each lamp displays additional fluted spiral designs and berried laurel decorations. Above the central support is the top cap with berried acanthus leaves, spiral fluted accents, and a small scale socle below the candle cup.
