A striking and most decorative pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated and gilt pedestals. Each pedestal is raised by a triangular base with cut corners and lovely foliate designs below a mottled wrap around giltwood band. The base displays striking hand painted central reserves with musical instruments amidst beautiful floral swaging garlands. With the other two sides displaying hand painted elegant floral wreaths. At the center are three tapered supports each connected by a most decorative X shaped tier, adorned with elegant giltwood floral rosettes, centering an inverted acorn shaped finial. Above is the patinated circular top with a fine mottled border.
