A sensational and very decorative pair of French mid 19th century, circa 1840, Louis XVI st. patinated and gilt pedestals. Each pedestal is raised by a square base with mottled gilt supports and moldings. Above is an impressive black patinated spiral column elegantly decorated by bold and richly detailed gilt grapevines. Areas of the gilt foliate protrude adding wonderful dimension throughout. At the top is a capitol with scrolls above a mottled band. The top shelf has a red patinated surface. All original gilt and paint.
