A charming pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated Bronze and Alabaster statues. Each wonderful statue is raised on a circular Alabaster base with a fine mottled band. The statues above depict a young boy and girl seated within hollowed tree trunks while holding bouquets of flowers. The girl gazes at her bouquet proudly with her obedient dog at her feet, while the boy holds a treat to grab the attention of his companion. All original warm and rich patina throughout.
