A wonderfully decorative pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Patinated Wood and Faux Painted Marble consoles. The pair are raised on four circular tapered fluted legs with a topie shaped bottom and a carved foliate top band. Above each leg at the apron is a carved block with a recessed reeded interior.

The apron has elegant recessed panels with a Greek key designs framed within a mottled border. The front central portion of the apron has a panel of an attractive diamond shape framing around a rosette. Above is the faux marble painted top with a mottled edge and protruding corners.
