A beautiful and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. porcelain and ormolu lidded urns. Each urn is raised by a square ormolu base with elegant Greek key designs at each side below the lightly curved socle shaped pedestal support with striking richly chased acanthus leaves and lovely wrap around circular and tied fluted bands. The beautiful turquoise colored porcelain body, possibly by Sèvres, displays a most decorative rim decorated with additional wrap around Greek key designs, pierced Vitruvian scrolls, and richly chased berried laurel bands in a superb satin and burnished finish. The lid displays an exceptional intricately detailed acorn finial amidst foliate designs and lifts off to reveal the finished interior.
