A charming and high quality pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. richly chased ormolu statues, signed Waagan. The pair are raised by a Rouge Griotte marble base with a rounded front. Above stands the ormolu statues of young maidens dressed in a classical attire. One of the maidens has a goat besides her while feeding two baby goats in her arms. The other maiden has a dog beside her carrying in his mouth a woven basket filled with flowers. The maiden is holding a garland of flowers in one hand while blowing on a dandelion in her other hand.
