A beautiful and most elegant pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. Sèvres porcelain and ormolu cache pot vases. Each stunning vase is raised on an ormolu base with concave corners and decorated with recessed plaques and displaying richly chased wrap around beaded and tied berried laurel bands.

The striking bowl shaped porcelain body displays beautiful wonderfully executed hand painted scenes of charming winged cherubs playing outside amidst colorful blooming flowers, ripe fruit, wheat and musical instruments. At each side are elegantly scrolled ormolu handles with a fine draped designs centering the pierced top rim. The bowl is also finished on the inside.
