A striking true pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. silvered bronze and ormolu candlesticks. Each is raised by a square silvered bronze base with a lovely wrap around ormolu band. The circular central column is decorated with richly chased ormolu female masks joined by a swaging garland. Above are elegant ormolu ladies draped in wonderfully executed flowing garments and each holding an urn with flowers. The fine stem ends in a lovely bud designed candle cup, accented with beautiful leaves.
