A stunning and extremely elegant pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. silvered bronze and ormolu lidded urns, attributed to A. Ermane. Each urn is raised by a square silvered bronze base with four feet each displaying wonderful ormolu foliate rosettes flanking an ormolu recessed tied band. The socle pedestals have richly chased and detailed bottom ormolu bands with charming floral chasing and in a satin and burnished finish. The impressive silvered bronze bodies display striking ormolu wheat amidst foliate and tied ormolu bands and flanked by fine foliate movements leading up each side. Above, are rich ormolu foliate patterns with striking silvered bronze berry accents. The lids are topped with a beautiful sunflower finial. The urns are also finished on the inside.
